IMMEDIATE RELEASE   Date: March 9, 2021
Contact: (706) 733-0188 ext. 1733
or vhaaugpublicaffairs@va.gov

Charlie Norwood VA Medical Center to hold Saturday COVID-19 Vaccination Clinic

AUGUSTA, Ga. — Charlie Norwood VA Medical Center will host a special Saturday COVID-19 Vaccination Clinic 9 a.m. – 2 p.m., March 13, at its Downtown Division on 950 15th Street in Augusta.

Veterans eligible to receive VA healthcare who are seeking a vaccine are encouraged to set an appointment by calling 706-733-0188 and using extensions 3634, 3632, or 3613. Veterans may also self-register by responding to a text message they might have received.

"Our ultimate goal is to vaccinate as many Veterans as possible in the region," said Dr. Jennifer Blanchard, Charlie Norwood VA Chief of Pharmacy. "Saturday vaccination clinics are just one of the innovative ways in which we're working to reach that goal."

WHO: Veterans seeking COVID-19 vaccine
WHAT: Saturday COVID-19 Vaccination Clinic
WHEN: 9 a.m. – 2 p.m., March 13, 2021
WHERE: COVID-19 Vaccination Clinic, Downtown Division, Charlie Norwood VA Medical Center, 950 15th Street, Augusta, GA 30901

Charlie Norwood VA Medical Center in Augusta has vaccinated more than 11,000 local Veterans using the Pfizer-BioNTech vaccine. In addition, the vast majority of Charlie Norwood VA employees have been vaccinated, adding another important layer of protection for Veteran patients and their families and communities.

Media seeking information about the Saturday vaccination clinic or other Charlie Norwood VA vaccination efforts should e-mail vhaaugpublicaffairs@va.gov.

###